

SIX GOAL GAME

Divide the group into two even teams with one conversion man. Six, three yard goals are spread out around the field. A team gets three points every time they pass a ball through a goal and it is received on the other side by a teammate. One point is awarded for eight consecutive passes by one team.