- D. Anyone receiving a red card (coach, player, or parent) will not be allowed to participate in the next match and must report to the tournament headquarters immediately following the match in which the card was given (cards will be adjudicated on site). Coaches and players who are sent off must immediately leave the field of play for the remainder of the match. The disciplinary committee will hold a hearing to determine if additional match suspensions are warranted. Suspended coaches may not be on the field complex and too not have any communication with the team while their team is playing the match. The team manager or assistant coach needs to submit the suspension form to the referee to sign to verify the coach is not present and served his suspension. Players must present their suspension form for signature to verify the suspension. Players may sit with the team in that they are not in uniform.
- E. Any player given three (3) yellow cards in the tournament will not be allowed to play their next match. The disciplinary committee will determine suspension for red card offenses. No appeals are allowed for cards adjudicated by the disciplinary committee.
- F. All persons and teams receiving red cards will have their respective National, Provincial, and State soccer associations notified with a copy of the misconduct report. If a player/coach has games remaining of a suspension passed down by the Tournament Disciplinary Committee, the tournament disciplinary committee will submit the remaining suspension to WYS which may affect the player/coach in future WYS sanctioned events. For an out of state player/coach their respective national, provincial or state associations will be notified of the remaining suspension.
